Welcome!

Buddhist Church of San Francisco Youth Athletic Organization
1881 Pine Street ♦ San Francisco ♦ CA ♦ 94109 www.bcsfyao.org

Dear Tournament Participants, Families & Friends,

On behalf of the Buddhist Church of San Francisco Youth Athletic Organization (BCSFYAO), I would like to welcome you to our 41st Annual Basketball Tournament. We're excited to once again see familiar faces and to meet new ones.

The spirit of the BCSFYAO tournament has always been rooted around sportsmanship. Play hard, challenge yourself, but always respect the game, your teammates, your opponents, your coaches, your officials, your friends and family. At the same time, I hope you take this opportunity to have fun, make friends and be mindful of the life lessons that youth sports can teach you.

To all the fans, remember that the purpose of youth basketball is to provide a platform for our children to work hard, compete, make friends and have fun! As a fan, we are spectators...not the coach, nor the ref.

Special thanks to Reverend Melissa Opel, Mrs. Arlene Kimata and the Buddhist Church of San Francisco for their continued support, friendship and guidance.

I'd like to thank our tournament committee led by Janet Low, Becky Mah, Tony Tam and all the supportive YAO families. We could not host such an amazing event without all of your hard work and dedication.

The BCSFYAO thanks you for your continued support! Best of luck to all the participating teams. Play hard and have fun!

Sincerely,
Erika Tamura
President, BCSFYAO

March 2024

Dear Players, Families and Volunteers for the 41st Annual Invitational BCSF YAO Tournament,

Congratulations and our very best wishes for a successful 41st Annual Invitational BCSF YAO Tournament. It's a wonderful event that gathers players, coaches, and families to celebrate both excellence in basketball and the community that supports it.

For more than 60 years, the Buddhist Church of San Francisco's Youth Athletic Organization has nurtured nearly three generations of young people who go on to find success and happiness in their adult lives. We are proud that the BCSF YAO program contributed to their development by teaching important life skills based on YAO principles of Teamwork, Dedication, and Community that align with Buddhist values.

Play hard, celebrate, and have FUN! The BCSF is fortunate to have the YAO as a temple affiliate and we look forward to many more years of supporting your outstanding youth program.

To our YAO Community:

With excitement and anticipation for your 41st Annual Invitational BCSF YAO Tournament, the Buddhist Church of San Francisco welcomes you! As BCSF continues to celebrate its 125th Anniversary throughout the year, we recall the sacrifices many have made so we can all benefit and have space to gather together today and into the future. Your participation in this tournament carries forward the gift we have all received and the opportunities we are afforded through the spirit of dana (giving) for the appreciation of hearing the dharma. As we reflect on those who lived out the Buddhist values of interconnectedness, kindness, and compassion, we feel a deep sense of gratitude and hope that we too can model these virtues and carry them forward.

As your teams come together during this tournament, our sincerest hope is that each of you has fun, makes memories with your friends, and has an opportunity to grow in character and athleticism. May the wisdom of the Buddha guide your actions as you compete and we wish everyone success in their endeavors.

Namo Amida Butsu.

5. Girls will play under the boys' rules except if there is a shot clock, in which case girls' shot clock rules apply.
6. SPORTSMANSHIP RULE (applies to all divisions)
If a team is leading by a score of 25 or more points at any time during the fourth quarter, the game converts to running-time for the remainder of the game, regardless of future score differential. The clock will stop for time-outs, but run continuously during jump ball possessions, out-of-bounds plays, and free-throw shooting.

 - a. Tiebreaker #1 - Quarters won (NOT including any overtime) will determine a winner. Team with the most quarters won will settle the tiebreaker.
 - b. Tiebreaker #2 - If two teams have the same number of most quarters won. In the event that the quarters won does not settle the tiebreaker, and two teams are still tied with the most number of quarters won, the head-to-head result between the two remaining teams will determine the higher seeding.
 - c. Tiebreaker #3 - If three teams have the same number of quarters won. Based on final scores, the total point differential in the two pool play games will be the 3rd tiebreaker.
- * If this does not resolve the ties, a coin flip will be used to determine final seeding for Sunday's play.

Additional Tiebreaker for 10 team division

- III. To determine the 3rd & 4th seeds, and the 5th & 6th seeds, the 2nd place from each pool, and the 3rd place from each pool, respectively, will use the following tiebreakers:

2. Any rosters submitted that have players from other organizations will be required to provide verification (from the Board level) from both organizations that the player is in fact a member in good standing with both organizations, prior to the acceptance of the team (or addition of the player) for participation in the tournament. This will include any players that are added to rosters due to hardship. Failure to provide this verification may affect the player's ability to participate in the tournament.

Love, Ardenettes 12

Amanda Dong

For as long as I can remember, BCSFYAO and the Ardenettes have been a part of my life. I started as a little kid, shooting around during halftime of my brother's Taisho games. Then in the second grade, I finally got to play on a real team in real games for the first time. Gradually, that turned into traveling to Sacramento for Betsuin, which has evolved into open tournaments as a high schooler. I am fortunate to be a part of a team that has stuck together for so long and am grateful to be able to call myself an Ardenette. Not only has the program allowed me to have fun playing basketball and develop my skills as a player, but it has also given me friendships that will last a lifetime. I will forever remember dinners and desserts after Friday practices, staying up late at night in hotels (only to wake up bright and early on Sunday), and being able to be teammates with my best friends.

Brianna Nguyen

Growing up hearing the cheers from the stands and shoes squeaking up and down the court whenever my brothers played, I was eager for my turn. During second grade, I was given the chance to play. Feeling the adrenaline and rush on court, it ultimately made me want to continue to play. This led me into wanting to continue my basketball journey and be part of the YAO basketball program. During my time within the program, I was surrounded by amazing girls, who had chemistry on and off the court. Being part of the YAO community has given me a chance to build new friendships and deeper bonds with my teammates. I have enjoyed playing for the YAO program and I am grateful for the opportunity to be part of the team.

Callie Kotake

Ever since I joined the Ardenettes in the second grade, it has been one of the best experiences. Through Ardenettes, I've met some of my closest friends and made some of my best memories. Whether it was competing in tournaments or simply staying up late bonding with teammates before the 9 am friendship game the next day, every moment was special. I also remember our travels to different cities for tournaments, where we ate the best meals like Kbbq. Despite attending different schools, the season brought us together in the best possible way. I will cherish my memories made with the Ardenettes, and hope that the future generations of BCSFYAO will create their own great memories like I did.

Grace Downs

In elementary school, I would always hear from my friends about the Ardenettes and how much they loved it. Then when I joined, I completely understood what they were talking about. I will always be grateful for the people I've met and the community I've gained from joining Ardenettes. I will always remember team meals during tournaments, giggling during practice, and the exciting conversations I have with teammates, updating each other on what we've missed since we've seen each other last. I am so appreciative of the coaches, parents, and my teammates, who have supported me in every way possible and have given me a fun space to play basketball and be around people I care about.

Kaitlyn Nguyen

Growing up I was surrounded by the sport of basketball. Since I was 6, I watched as my uncle coached a team, both brothers played and all of my cousins played as well. Being on the sidelines I was able to grow my knowledge off the court which allowed me to prepare when I was given the chance to play a team. Basketball has been a part of my life through everything and is why I am so grateful to be given the opportunity to play for the Ardenettes. I have built a new community in such a short amount of time and I am thankful for all the parents, coaches and organization leaders who have created such a positive program. The chance to be able to create memories with the team is something I will forever cherish.

Kalisa Low

Of all the memories from my childhood, my favorites are all from me playing basketball. I have been with the Ardenettes since third grade and they have quickly become my second family. Going to tournaments and staying up late every night before our early Sunday morning games is what I looked forward to the most during the open season. Even during COVID, when we couldn't fully play basketball, we had workouts outside in front of Lowell and those were some of the few times I could hang out with my friends in person. The BCSFYAO has brought me some of my closest friends and I will forever be grateful. Thank you so much to all my coaches, especially the aunts and uncles who have continually supported our team! Although this is my last year, I hope this organization continues to be the foundation of many life-long relationships and helps future and current youth achieve their basketball dreams.

Kamrin Brooke Perea

I have been a part of YAO and playing for the Ardenettes for six years now. For a good formative part of my life, I have been with these girls and this program, and I wouldn't trade it for the world. I remember finding out what the program was and my first practice as if it was yesterday. At first, I was intimidated by everyone, but the girls that eventually became my family. The whole program became my family. I had never been on a team that traveled to play games, and these away tournaments have been core memories forever. From late nights in the hotel exploring, Socials, and talking so late into the night knowing we had games the next morning. The basketball aspect isn't the only memory that has stuck with me. Volunteering, going to pancake breakfasts, holding bake sales, and doing things for YAO were also very important to me. Playing basketball with the Ardenettes not only taught me how to be better at the game, but it taught me how to be a better person. It taught me to value the real things, like our friendship. I remember how we went through a phase thinking we would all go to the same college and buy a huge mansion. We picked out our roommates and everything. This is just proof guys that we were that delusional from the beginning. Now we are at this point, college is around the corner and leaving all of this behind and growing up. Becoming the person, I am today and growing with you guys is something I will never let go of. I just want to thank the parents for dealing with us, taking us to our games, and being our number-one fans. Thank you to Auntie Yunice, Auntie Jenny, and Auntie Erika for everything. Thank you to our coaches for putting up with us during practice and teaching us valuable lessons and helping us improve our game. Thank you, YAO, for helping creating some of the best memories for me. Lastly, I want to thank my teammates for not only these amazing six years but becoming my lifelong friends. The best is yet to come!

Kate Kotake

I joined the Ardenettes in second grade, now looking back, I have a sense of nostalgia for I can't believe that I am here today, graduating. YAO has been a great experience for me to deepen my understanding as a person and as a teammate, it has helped me grow the characteristics that I possess today. Through this organization, I have made friends that I will have for a lifetime and cherish, all with whom I have grown up with. I appreciate what my coaches and parents have done for me to help me grow as an individual and countless times they have spoiled our team with boba, win or lose. I will treasure my time with YAO and the connections I have made with my community and heritage. Although I am sad to leave, I am grateful to have been a part of this organization and have created great memories.

Kaylie Quon

Thank you to the Ardentte's for inviting me to play basketball with your team in 5th grade! I have so many fond memories on and off the court with my teammates and I think of everyone as family! We ate well every tournament and even after practices—thank you to Auntie Yunice and Auntie Jenny for always finding restaurants that we could all fit and eat together. You have all been so supportive and encouraging. Thank you to all the coaches for training and challenging all of us and believing in us when we sometimes did not believe in ourselves. A special “Thank You” to the Kong family for getting access to gyms, coordinating guest coaches and giving us positive one-on-one feedback.

Kylie Kong

I joined Ardenettes in fourth grade, a time when little me was searching to find where my extracurricular passions lie. I knew I enjoyed playing school basketball, but the thought of playing with a group of strangers initially terrified me. However, as soon as we gathered in the circle to introduce ourselves, sharing our favorite ice cream flavors and laughing at each other's responses, I knew I wanted to stay with this group of girls for as long as possible.

Growing up with the Ardenettes has taught me more than my love for basketball; it has helped me find a kind yet hilarious community that constantly makes me smile and makes me feel safe. They epitomize the reason I tell people I play basketball to meet new people. Whether it's 8 pm Friday night practices, birthday parties, Disneyland, or KBBQ trips, I've adored every second with this family.

I especially admired that it didn't matter if we were winning or losing on the court because we were having fun simply being around each other. Joining has made me feel loved, and leaving is something I've always avoided thinking about. As I ultimately encounter the end of this journey, I find myself unable to express my gratitude through words for the lifelong friendships I made. While we will go on our different paths, I hope the memories we created will forever keep us connected. To all the parents, managers, coaches, teammates, and friends who I've met along my BCSFYAO journey and have seen me at my lowest and continue to support me, I can not thank you enough and please know you will always hold a special place in my heart.

Kylie Tam

The YAO and Ardenettes have been a significant part of my life ever since the third grade. I initially thought I was being forced to join by my parents, but didn't know how much of a positive impact it would have on me. I have had the opportunity to create lifelong friendships with the amazing people and families I have met through joining the Ardenettes. I always have fun eating and hanging out with my teammates no matter what happens during tournaments or games. What I appreciate the most about this program is that the bonds and relationships we have are equally as important as the love we share for basketball. I am thankful for the YAO, coaches, and my teammates for making every memory I have of Ardenettes a good one. I know that I will always look back on this experience with gratitude.

Mackenzie Luk

Since joining the Ardenettes, I have found a community of friends and family. The Ardenettes has taught me about being a team player, and I have made so many lifelong friends in the process. I loved attending our tournaments because I grew closer with my teammates and their families. I want to thank our parents, coaches, and YAO for making these opportunities possible. I will cherish these memories forever.

Maya Loo

I haven't been on Ardenettes for a long time, but I've witnessed the beauty of this team, and the warm-hearted, loving girls that I'm blessed to call my teammates. I started basketball in the sixth grade, experiencing lots of club and school teams, and the highs and lows that come with it. I thank Jesus for all the experiences I have been blessed with, and Ardenettes is one of them. From the moment I first experienced Ardenettes, I could see how each girl finds the purest amount of joy and fun in the game. This team reminds me to hold onto my love for the sport, the one that my sixth-grade self found joy in. I send all my love to the seniors, as we now face college! Thank you so much to the Ardenettes team, coaches, and parents!

Michelle Tang

When I first joined the Ardenettes my freshman year, I was extremely nervous because I only knew one player on the team. I was hesitant to walk into the gym and was unaware of how I would fit in. However, as I approached my first practice with the team, it was evident to me that I would be a part of a tight-knit group that valued community and dedication. Every practice, game, boba run, and Korean BBQ dinner was a moment that I will cherish forever. In these wonderful 4 years, I was not only able to improve upon my basketball skills, but was also able to build new friendships and create memories that I will always remember. As our final moments together approaches, I want to thank the staff, players, and parents that have welcomed me into this organization. I'm more than grateful to have experienced this journey with many others and I will forever appreciate everyone that made these past years special.

Talia Low

YAO has been a very big portion of my life. I joined the team 9 years ago because some of my friends played and ended up loving my team and the game of basketball itself. I will always cherish the memories of eating dinner and dessert together after every league game. I will always cherish all the memories of going to tournaments and just hanging out with everyone throughout the weekend. I eventually stopped playing basketball for the team and transferred into a managerial role. Even though I am no longer on the court playing with everyone, the team has never made me feel like I was no longer a part of it. I enjoy being able to still contribute to the team even if I'm just collecting signatures or keeping a book. Ardenettes has always made me feel welcome and a part of the community. I am very grateful to have been with this organization and my team specifically. It has taught me leadership, sportsmanship, how to be a good friend, how to deal with different social circumstances, etc. I hope that many more generations will experience the joys I've experienced with YAO. And thanks to my team, the coaches, the parents and everyone involved for making this community so great.

Reflecting on my years in the YAO basketball league, I am overwhelmed with gratitude and nostalgia. From the first time stepping onto the court in third grade, YAO became an integral part of my life, shaping my basketball skills and the person I am today. YAO provided me with a unique opportunity to connect with others who shared the same passion for basketball. We formed a tight community through our practices and games, and we forged lasting friendships and learned valuable life lessons along the way. The game of basketball has taught me the importance of teamwork, and the significance of trusting and relying on one another. I learned how to communicate effectively, and encourage and uplift teammates during both triumphs and setbacks. The sense of camaraderie we built throughout the years extended beyond the court, fostering a support system that extended into our personal lives. As I look back on my journey, I am filled with gratitude. YAO made me the person I am today, and it provided a community of like-minded individuals, life skills, and a deep appreciation for my Asian identity. To Coach Akemi, Coach Rich, and Coach Keith, I want to express my sincerest gratitude. Thank you for creating a space where I could grow both as an athlete and as an individual. The memories, lessons, and friendships I have gained will forever hold a special place in my heart.

Evan Noah Chiu

I've been a part of Taisho and the YAO community since third grade and have met so many people who have greatly impacted my lives: coaches, teammates, refs, parents, etc. I am very fortunate to be able to reunite with my team that I've played with during elementary school and middle school as well as being fortunate to bond and create strong friendships between all the different teammates I had over the last 9 years. I'm proud to represent and be part of the Taisho community, who have brought me into the family and community that have always been kind and welcoming to me. Playing against the same teams over and over again may be repetitive, but it has given me numerous opportunities to meet and bond with other people from different teams like people from Rebels. My favorite memories from YAO would be the Betsuin tournament from years past, or when we went to Reno with the friends that have been there for me when I initially didn't have a team. We went to Circus Circus with some teammates and while playing one of the carnival games, we met a worker who gave us pity for spending around 60$ for a giant prize. We spent around an hour contemplating whether we should stop, but ended up with a giant avocado even though we never won.

Cody Giang

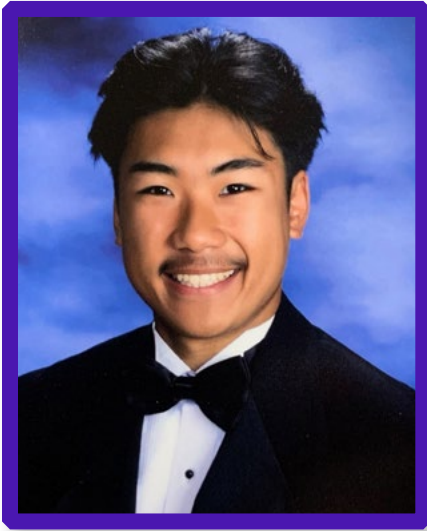

Taisho/ Yao has been the most welcoming program I've ever played for so I became loyal to the program because it welcomed me to join such a great organization. I would like to thank the following players for inviting me to play taisho with them, Mason Fong and Tyler Huynh. I was looking for a new team to play for and I've known Mason since the start of middle school and I knew Tyler from our training sessions with milo academy during quarantine. I grew a relationship with my teammates like Wade Nakahara and Evan Noah chiu. They were really open to a random kid who thought he was the best player but they humbled me and worked with me to become the leader I am now.

Taisho for me has been a roller coaster. The three years and 4 different Taisho seasons i've played in, i've had 4 different coaches every season so it was hard for me to feel comfortable as a player since I would always have different teammates every season.

Games were always thrilling but I would always have the outcomes i wouldnt like. The one season we made the championship game I was so excited because it was my first team that ever had a winning season.

The moments I remember most were eating dinner with the people who welcomed me into their taisho family while in Reno for the Sacramento Barons tournament and just enjoying joking around with these apes every season.

I would like to thank the coaches who gave me an opportunity to play for their teams and would like to thank coach Akemi and Rich for always dealing with my shenanigans when I first joined. I love my taisho family and love playing with these monkeys or players.

Mason Fong

Playing Taisho basketball over the past 7 years has shaped me profoundly. It has taught me many lessons, helped me form many bonds, and prepared me for future obstacles that I had to face. Basketball became more than just a sport. It instilled discipline and perseverance in me. Each game taught me resilience, teamwork, and leadership, which are essential beyond the court. The memories made with coaches and teammates are some of the most cherished moments of my experience playing Taisho. The weeknight practices, the weekend tournaments, and even the team dinners, were always something I looked forward to. Something I will always remember is running around the hotels so carelessly. Not a single stressful thought in my mind. Playing for Taisho fueled my personal growth. It gave me confidence, taught me work ethic and encouraged resilience. Through chicken bento sales and helping set up services, we made some type of impact beyond the court. My time with Taisho has helped form who I am today. As I move forward, I'll carry the lessons learned and friendships with me in my next chapter.

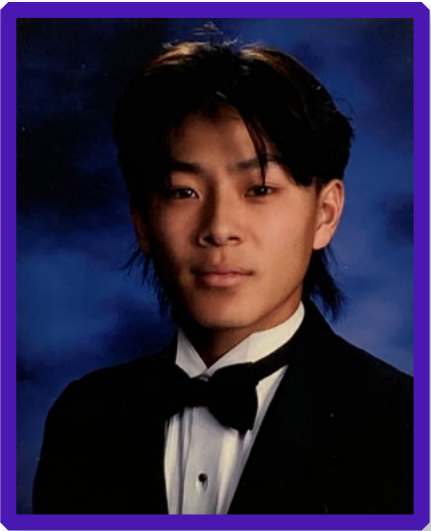

Milo McGrath

I started playing basketball with Taisho a little later than most of the other kids, but I picked up the concepts quickly thanks to the patience of Coach Rich and Coach Akemi. The other kids soon became my teammates and we played well together against Tri-City, The Associates, and other good teams. I learned the value of teamwork, passing, defense, and running our plays the right way. I also had fun at the tournaments! The foundation Taisho provided gave me the chance to play basketball at middle school and then at high school. I was able to play at the varsity level as a freshman and continue on for 4 years. My team just went further into playoffs than any team in International High School history, ending our season last Saturday with incredible support from the community. The energy in the gym, especially for our last few home games, was electric. It all started, however, with Coach Rich, Coach Akemi, and my Taisho teammates.

Tyler Huynh

I joined Taisho in 7th grade and ever since it's been some of the best times of my life. Creating these bonds and memories with my teammates that will last a lifetime. I was nervous at first when I joined because I didn't know anyone but the coaches made me feel welcomed and a part of the family. I am extremely grateful to be a part of such an amazing organization that gave me the wonderful opportunities to become a better basketball player and a better person at the same time.

Wade Nakahara

In 8th grade, I realized the current team I was playing with wasn't the place for me. I had a few bitter experiences at several tournaments with the team leaving me to question my commitment to the team. As COVID placed a halt to my season, I had little to no intention of returning to that team or playing in the Asian Open League.

In my sophomore year, as basketball resumed, my dad suggested that I play for Taisho. I stepped into the gym with low expectations, but I never would have guessed how welcoming the coaches and other players would be. Some of my favorite memories were the times that I spent with the team not only during the games but after at dinners and socials.

As my time on Taisho comes to a close, I will forever cherish the life lessons I have learned as well as the various coaches and players I have met along this journey. With confidence, I can walk out of this organization knowing Taisho was the right place for me.

TEAMS OF The YAO

BCSF YAO Board of Directors

President	Erika Tamura
Treasurer	Steve Otsuki
Secretary	Stephanie Kwan Speaks
Open Commissioner	Robert Dong
NYBA Commissioner	Eric Akiyama
EBGAL Commissioner	Joe Lam
Church Liaison	Alice Akiyama & Angie Lau

TEAMS OF THE Buddhist Church of San Francisco Youth Athletic Organization

Our primary goal is to provide organized play in basketball for all members, in an environment where sportsmanship, fair play, and participation are guiding principles. This organization was founded to give children of all skill levels an opportunity to play in a safe, nurturing and healthy atmosphere.

It is our philosophy that winning will not overshadow these guiding principles.

The organization works to achieve this mission through its two-tiered program. The league/roster teams are intended to offer opportunities to participate at a level of play that is exclusive of players participating in high school programs. The open/tournament teams are intended to provide players who decide that they want to participate at a higher competitive level.
